Chef Cooking Party FAQ's and Guidelines

Is the cost of the party in addition to the $50 deposit?

No, the $50 deposit is applied to the cost of the party. This $50 deposit is due at the time you book your reservation, and the remaining balance is due no later than 14 days before your event.

Where are Chef Cooking Parties located and what is included?

Cooking Parties will take place at the Prisco Community Center in one of our community rooms. The party room will include tables and chairs to accommodate 10 children, pizza-making ingredients, cupcakes to frost and decorate, and a chef hat craft to take home.

When can we begin set-up for our Chef Cooking Party?

Set-up for Cooking Parties can begin 10 minutes prior to the start time, and we ask that all guests and items be removed from the party room no more than 10 minutes after the party.

What kinds of activities can we expect during the party?

One hour and 30 minutes in the party room will include instructor led pizza making and sugar cookie decorating, along with a chef hat craft and games if time permits.

Do we need exactly 10 children to book the party?

No, up to 10 children are included in the party cost. Additional guests can be added for $12 each. Please notify the Park District one week before the event to confirm the final count.

Where do I go when I arrive at Prisco Community Center?

When you arrive for your Party, simply check in at the front desk, and our staff will show you to your party room. A birthday party attendant will also be there to help assist you with unloading any items you have brought for the party.

Can we bring food, drink, cake, etc?

Yes! You are welcome to serve any additional food or beverages that you would like provide for your guests.

I acknowledge that I have fully read and understand the Chef Cooking Party Request Form, as well as the FAQs and Guidelines sections. My signature confirms receipt and agreed compliance of these policies and guidelines.
